SSS Named Special Olympics Unified Champion School®

Special Olympics of North Carolina announced that Smithfield-Selma High School will be recognized as a Special Olympics Unified Champion School® and is receiving national banner recognition for their efforts to provide inclusive sports and activities for students with and without intellectual disabilities.

Smithfield-Selma, along with Ledford, West Davidson, and West Stokes are all receiving the honor as a result of meeting national standards of excellence in the areas of inclusion, advocacy and respect. MORE

NC Pork Council Feeds Our First Responders

The Smithfield Police and Fire Departments, along with Johnston County Emergency Services, were blessed with a bounty of food by the North Carolina Pork Council Sunday afternoon. Thanks to them for going out of their way to make sure our first responders know how much they are appreciated!

Carriage Rides in Downtown Smithfield Tomorrow Night

Free Carriage Rides are back!

Join us in Downtown Smithfield from 6-9pm on Friday, September 18. Make an entire evening of it by enjoying dinner Downtown, too!

Carriage rides begin at the corner of Third and Market streets, and are first come, first served.

In an effort to ensure everyone's health and safety, separate groups of riders will not be combined to fill the carriage. The carriage ride provider will sanitize touch points and spray the seats with disinfectant between parties. The driver will wear a mask.

We ask that all riders follow the following regulations:

- Wear a mask
- Wait in line at the distances marked on the sidewalk
- Sanitize your hands before and after your ride (hand sanitizer will be provided)
