Final Third StrEATery of 2021 on October 1st!

Our final Third StrEATery of the year, featuring music from The Legacy Motown Revue, will be next Friday, October 1st, from 6-9pm.

Come downtown with your family, meet up with your friends, get takeout from a downtown restaurant, and join us from 6-9pm on Third Street in Downtown Smithfield. Along with the music, shop from local businesses, have a beer or glass of wine, or try your hand at axe throwing!

Drone Field Ribbon Cutting and Fly-In Demonstration October 2nd

Saturday, October 2nd, join us at our new Drone Field at Gertrude Johnson Park (1222 W Market St.) for our ribbon cutting ceremony and our very first drone fly-in demonstration! Bring your drones and fly with us! We'll also have licensed drone flyers there to assist you if you've never flown a drone.

The ribbon cutting will be held at 12:30 p.m. and the drone demonstrations begin at 1:00 p.m. Join us as we welcome this brand new addition to our Smithfield Parks!

For more information about drones and drone safety, visit our website.

Family Days Fall Fest at Carolina Premium Outlets

The Family Days Fall Fest Super Carnival, presented by Inner Shows, will be held at the Carolina Premium Outlets from Thursday, September 30th through Sunday, October 10th.

The Carnival will operate on weekdays from 5-11pm and weekends from 1-11pm.

Bring the entire family out for some fall family fun!

Basketball Registration Underway

Registration for Smithfield Parks and Recreation youth basketball has started and runs until October 22nd.

Registration is for boys ages 5-15 and girls ages 5-12. The child's age as of 12/31/21 will determine playing age. Cost is $25 for Smithfield residents and $50 for non-residents. Practices will begin in late November and run throughout the month of December, with games starting in January.
