Movies in the Park June 11th!

Join us at Smithfield Community Park at 600 M. Durwood Stephenson Parkway on June 11th for the 80's classic The Goonies! Thank you to our sponsor, Chick-fil-A, who will have chicken sandwiches available for purchase for each of our movies. You're welcome to bring your own picnic items, too.

Other movies this summer include: A League of Their Own on July 22nd, and Beauty and the Beast on August 6th.

Third StrEATery June 17th

Come downtown with your family, meet up with friends, get takeout from a downtown restaurant, and join us on Friday, June 17th from 6-9pm for the next Third StrEATery! Enjoy live music from The Radio. The 100 block of S. Third Street will be closed, and tables and chairs will be set up in the street for you to enjoy the music, shops, restaurants and everything else Smithfield has to offer.

The Radio is the soundtrack to the great American road trip. Expect to hear music ranging from 30s/40s vocal jazz to cowboy country, honky tonk to early rock, crossover renditions of modern songs and many originals.

Third StrEATery is supported by the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.

Juneteenth Celebration Scheduled for June 18th

The second annual Celebrating Juneteenth in JoCo will be held on Saturday, June 18th in Smithfield.

A parade from the Johnston Central Alumni Center (1110 Massey Street) to Smith-Collins Park (909 East Lee Street) will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Following the parade at noon at Smith-Collins Park, Juneteenth in JoCo will offer free food, games, music, vendors, special guests and many more events throughout the day.

If you are interested in participating in the event as a vendor, parade entry, sponsor, or a fraternity/sorority from an HBCU, contact Smithfield Town Councilman Marlon Lee at 919-631-6544.

Summer Camps at the "SRAC"

Registration is now underway for a variety of summer camps with Smithfield Parks and Recreation and the Smithfield Recreation and Aquatics Center (SRAC).

Smithfield Parks and Recreation will host a wide selection of sports camps this summer including: soccer, tennis, football, basketball and wrestling.

Meanwhile, the Smithfield Recreation and Aquatics Center will host week-long summer camps, along with art camps, swimming lessons, lifeguard training sessions and an opportunity to swim with the SRAC Sharks Swim Team.

Details for each camp, including dates, times, costs, and registration information can be found online at the following link:
