Third StrEATery TONIGHT!

Come downtown with your family, meet up with friends, get takeout from a downtown restaurant, and join us TONIGHT (June 17th) from 6:00-9:00 p.m. for the next Third StrEATery! Enjoy live music from The Radio. The 100 block of S. Third Street will be closed, and tables and chairs will be set up in the street for you to enjoy the music, shops, restaurants and everything else Smithfield has to offer.

The Radio is the soundtrack to the great American road trip. Expect to hear music ranging from 30s/40s vocal jazz to cowboy country, honky tonk to early rock, crossover renditions of modern songs and many originals.

Third StrEATery is supported by the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.

Juneteenth Celebrations

A celebration of Juneteenth and Black Music Appreciation Month is scheduled for 6:00 p.m. TONIGHT (June 17th) on the lawn of the Learning Resource Center at Johnston Community College, 245 College Road, Smithfield.

Musical acts JusOnce and Mack Band will perform plus food trucks and games will also be onsite. JCC's Black History Committee sponsors this free, family-friendly event to kickoff Juneteenth weekend and celebrate black music and history.

Celebrating Juneteenth in JoCo will be held TOMORROW (June 18th) in Smithfield.

A parade from the Johnston Central Alumni Center (1110 Massey Street) to Smith-Collins Park (909 East Lee Street) will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Then, beginning at noon at Smith-Collins Park, Juneteenth in JoCo will offer free food, games, music, vendors, special guests and many more events throughout the day.
