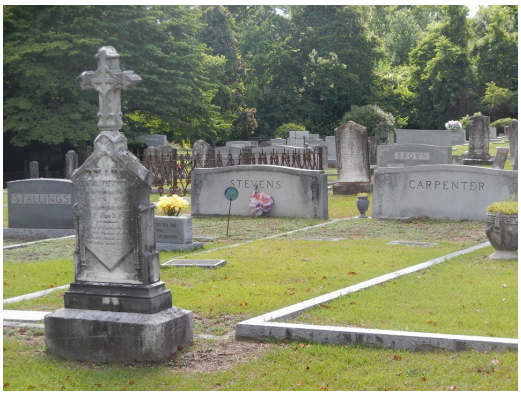
Blazin' Keys Dueling Pianos to Headline Final Third StrEATery of 2022

Come downtown with your family, meet up with your friends, get takeout from a downtown restaurant, and join us from 6:00-

9:00pm on Third Street to hear live music and shop from local businesses. Afterward, catch a movie or enjoy drinks at one of our restaurants or bars. The 100 block of S. Third Street will be closed, and tables and chairs will be set up in the street.

North Carolina's premier dueling pianos show, Blazin' Keys offers a high energy performance, a variety of musical selections, and they're sure to get the crowd involved!

This project was supported by the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources. The Third StrEATery is supported by a Johnston County Arts Council Grassroots Grant.



Heritage Center Ghost Walk October 27th

The Johnston County Heritage Center will hold its annual Ghost Walk on Thursday, October 27th from 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Six fascinating historical characters will be brought back to life in Smithfield's historic Riverside Cemetery. Tours will begin beside St. Paul's Episcopal Church starting at 6:00pm and will last approximately 30 minutes. Admission is $5 for adults and $3 for students. Children under 5 get in free. There are no advance ticket sales.

Halloween Fun

Smithfield Parks and Recreation has two great events planned for Halloween weekend!

The "Boo Bash" will take place at the Sarah Yard Community Center (909 East Lee St.) on Friday, October 28th from 4:30-6:30pm.

Join us for great food, games and lots of fun!

We'll also be hosting our annual "Trunk or Treat" at Smithfield Community Park on Saturday, October 29th, from 10:30am-12:30pm. Make sure the kids come dressed in their costumes!

Businesses, churches, non-profits, or individual families wishing to host a trunk should contact tiffany.pearson@smithfield-nc.com or call 919-934-2148. All trunks will provide an unopened bag of individually wrapped candy with a decorated car trunk. In addition, prizes will be awarded for the best decorated trunk.

Veterans Day Celebration and Fireworks

As a way of honoring all who the men and women who have served our country, the Town of Smithfield will hold a Veterans Day Celebration at Smithfield Community Park on Friday, November 11th, beginning at 5:30pm.

“Our Veterans Day Celebration is an opportunity to say thank you to each of our veterans who have given so much to our community, county, state and nation,” said Mayor Andy Moore. “The Town of Smithfield will forever be indebted to each of our veterans, and their families, for all they have given to our country. We hope this celebration is just another way to honor their bravery, courage and sacrifice.”

This will be Smithfield’s third Veteran’s Day Celebration. Festivities include music from band the Bad Decisions along with food trucks, bounce houses, games and more. The celebration will conclude with a fireworks display at approximately 8:30pm.
